
Circle: single response; square: three responses; triangle/cross: references.
Each point is one network, averaged over truth, noise and readout repeats. All 40 networks shown; horizontal jitter only.